Swedish Language Course – Autumn 2019 – Basic Swedish 1–4

Exchange students and international students are given the opportunity to study Swedish at the Department of Scandinavian Languages. Students required to pay fees can audit the course free of charge, but will not get registered to the course, nor receive credits for it.

Application
You can find the on-line application at www.nordiska.uu.se under Learn Swedish, between August 1 and August 28. Last day to apply is Wednesday August 28th.

If you haven’t completed the Basic Swedish course an earlier semester and you want to continue the course, please do not apply again. Instead, send an email to basic@nordiska.uu.se so that you can get re-registered if there are available spots on the course.

Diagnostic Test
A diagnostic test for new students applying for Basic Swedish levels 2, 3 and 4 will take place on Tuesday September 3 at 6pm in room 21-0011 'Ihresalen', campus Engelska parken, Thunbergsvägen 3L. Please note, beginners or students who have already passed Basic Swedish levels 1, 2 or 3 and wish to continue studying Swedish DO NOT NEED to take the diagnostic test.

Admission
Notification about admission, course start and designated group will be announced by e-mail in early September.

The Courses
The Swedish courses commence on September 9 or 10, depending on which group you are in. Students are obligated to attend the first week's lectures, and if you are unable to do so, you must send an email to basic@nordiska.uu.se before course start.
Students enrolled in Basic Swedish are obligated to attend classes, complete homework and purchase course material. The course material for Basic Swedish 1 can be bought at the department for approximately SEK 150. Courses run during the entire semester, and meet twice a week.

To receive a passing grade, students must attend 75 per cent of the lessons and pass both a written and listening exam.

For more information, please send an email to basic@nordiska.uu.se
